Since we want to explore a wider region of ionic separations we used a modified importance sampling scheme. The configurations were chosen with a frequency proportional to $w(r_{12}) \exp(-U/kT)$, where the weighting function $w(r_{12})$ was chosen to spread the sampling over the desired range of r_{12}. The canonical average of a