

Communication in Physics: Presentation Evaluation			Talk #
Speaker's Name:		Date:
Presentation Title:
Category	Criteria	Points max	Points deducted
Organization 20 points	Information is presented in a logical sequence.	3
	Introduction gives good preparation and puts topic in context	3
	Central ideas are clearly specified	4
	Body of speech is focused to get message across	3
	Effective summary and conclusion	3
	Figures have captions defining what is shown	2
	Presentation appropriately cites references.	2
Content 40 points	Subject interesting and appropriate for the occasion	3
	Presentation contains right amount of material	4
	Scientific terms and concepts are well explained and put into context	6
	Scientific material presented by speaker is accurate, and the speaker knows what he/she is talking about	12
	Written text effectively supports the message	6
	Materials show good writing skills, spelling and punctuation.	2
	Figures and other visual aids effectively support the story	6
	Presentation identifies author and date	1
Delivery 40 points	The speaker speaks clearly and distinctly and is easy to hear and understand.	5
	Presentation materials are legible at intended distance.	5
	Speaker uses appropriate comportment, posture and eye-contact	3
	Spoken words are matched/supported by information on slides (text and figures)	5
	Presentation is engaging and keeps audience's attention throughout the talk	6
	Pace of presentation is appropriate	4
	Presentation shows obvious preparation and practiced delivery.	10
	Length of the presentation is within assigned time requirement.	4
Score	Total Points	100

Additional comments: